muddy, playing in water, playing with soap bubbles, and eating messy fun things like watermelon outside).

its effects were a combination of euphoria, sociability, drowsiness, loss of inhibition, and extreme sexual desire, in both men and women.

thus, the film quickly abandons biting sarcasm in favor of gumming you to a sloppy, slow death.