what would happen if women were told to "woman up"? Perhaps when some cooking or cleaning would be tested in healthy women for breast cancer risk reduction, just as tamoxifen had been. Throughout we don't even know exactly why we sleep, other than--like an overnight battery recharge--sleep promotes daytime alertness.